

Project Profile

ASLAV Workshop | Enoggera

Client	Carson Group
Project Cost	$4.5 Million
Services Provided	Cost Planning and Value Management Facilitation
Architect	Hassell
Head Contractors	Cordukes

Overview

A new electronics / maintenance facility that will support the introduction of ASLAV (B vehicles and M113 being replaced by the ASLAV) to meet the needs of modern 8 wheel drive vehicles with sophisticated electronics, including a service pit and gantry crane at Enoggera Army Base to comply with AS and Defence Standards, including security standards "SECMAN".