

Project Profile

Faculty of Science: F12 Dalton | Sydney, NSW

Client	University of New South Wales
Client Sector	Education
Project Cost	$5.25 Million
Services Provided	Cost Monitoring Services including Cost Estimating, Guaranteed Maximum Price Negotiation, Contractual Advice, Progress Claim Assessment incorporating Monthly Expenditure Audits, Variations Assessment, Monthly Financial Statements and Final Account Audit.
Project Size	2,300m ²
Architect	Francis-Jones Morehen Thorp Architects
Head Contractor	Bovis Lend Lease

Overview

Completed in March 2007, the Dalton building is a three level refurbished facility which houses the Faculty of Science's Deans Unit management and administration areas, academic offices and student workspaces and computer laboratories. A dual level sky-bridge links Dalton with the Faculty's teaching and research specific F10 Chemical Sciences building. The refurbishment of the Dalton building completed the consolidation of the Faculty of Science into a single, purpose-built facility.