

Project Profile

Fisherman's Co-Op | Newcastle, NSW

Client	Fisherman's Cooperative, Newcastle
Client Sector	Retail
Project Cost	$2,500,000
Services Provided	Estimating and cost management, contract negotiations and full post contract services were provided.
Architect	Cornucopia Architects
Head Contractors	Milleen Constructions

Overview

Newcastle's new "Fish Markets". This portion of the Honeysuckle Development Corporation area on the Carrington Wharf, was redeveloped to provide a new local fish market. Adjacent to the new fishing berth the development incorporates a processing and packaging facility with retail outlets, and at first floor level new offices provide accommodation for the fisheries department and other administrative functions. The development also incorporates a new restaurant and fast food outlet.